LOS ANGELES COUNTY POPULATION

January 1, 1960 estimate ..... 6,016,405

1850 - 1960

The State of California was seventy years old before Los Angeles County achieved a population of one million. In contrast, by 1928 or but eight years later, the population had doubled. This trend was slowed by the onset of the Depression of the Thirties so that thirteen years were to elapse before the County could claim a population of three million.

Accelerated once more by World War II, local growth added another million to our population in the eight years between 1941 and 1949. It took only six more years for Los Angeles County to reach a population of five million and now but five years later six million.

Los Angeles County now accounts for approximately 22% of the population of the thirteen Western states and 30% of that of the five Pacific states. Only seven states, including California, now have populations exceeding that of Los Angeles County. The others are New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Texas and Michigan.

1959 NET DWELLING UNIT INCREASE

Last year's net dwelling unit increase registered a slight gain over the previous year, but fell 5.4% below the 1957 net increase of 64,448 units. During 1959, multiple units continued to constitute the major element of increase, as in 1958, accounting for 53% of the net gain as compared with 42% for Single units and 5% for Duplex units. However, a look at the nine and three-quarter years since the 1950 Census shows that 66% of the total net increase has been in Single dwelling units with but 29% in Multiple units and the remaining 5% in Duplex units.

The single family unit continues to dominate the Los Angeles County housing picture. As of January 1, 1960, it is estimated that of the County's 2,096,998 total dwelling units 65.6% or 1,375,744 were Single units, 24.8% or 520,708 Multiple units and 9.6% or 200,546 Duplex units.

NET DWELLING UNIT INCREASE BY TYPE
1957 - 1958 - 1959

| Multiple | 32,224 | 33,571 | 27,578 | - 4.0 |
| Annual Increase | 60,948 | 60,606 | 64,448 | + .6 |

LAWNDALE

On December 28, 1959, Lawndale (SA 16.7) became Los Angeles County's sixty-sixth city. The new city has an area of 1.897 square miles and an estimated population of 22,509. Lawndale was the fourth Los Angeles County community to incorporate during 1959 and the twenty-first since 1950.

ADJUSTMENTS

Several adjustments were made to reflect large annexations to Bell, La Verne, Long Beach, Pomona and Vernon. These annexations involved little or no population. A reduction was made in the population of Maywood (SA 32.2) to correct an error noted in the previous Bulletin.

THE REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION — COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

Arthur J. Baum, Chairman — Milton Breivogel, Director

108 W. Second St., Los Angeles 12, Calif. MA 8-9211 - Ext. 4785

Population Research Section — 220 N. Broadway, Room 810

April 1, 1960 estimate ..... 6,059,161

1960 DECENNIAL CENSUS

The Bureau of the Census expects to release some preliminary total population counts the latter part of this month. Caution should be used in working with these locally compiled figures in that they are subject to a later assignment of transients and verification of all computions by the Bureau's Washington office. Certified total population will not be available until later in the year and the more detailed characteristics in 1961.

DWELLING UNIT TYPES 1940-1960

A two year predominance of multiple units in the quarterly net dwelling unit increase was broken during the fourth quarter of 1959, when single units registered a net gain of 5,679 as compared with a multiple increase of 5,511 units. However, more significantly, there was an approximate 18% decline in the quarter's total net gain as compared with the similar quarter of 1959. Most of this loss resulted from a sharp drop in multiple construction. As yet, this recent rush to multiple construction has resulted only in somewhat restoring multiples to the position they held in 1940.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY DWELLING UNIT TYPES

| | Single | Duplex | Multiple | Total |

| April 1960 | 1,381,423 | 201,216 | 526,245 | 2,108,884 |

| % of Total | 63.0 | 10.6 | 26.4 | 100.0 |

A comparison of dwelling unit type gains during the past two decades points up the consistent preference shown to the single unit as the principal means for meeting the housing demand within Los Angeles County. Although the percentage of single units in the total net increase for 1950-60 declined 4% as compared with 1940-50, they continued to comprise almost two-thirds of the County's net residential increase during the past decade. The only housing type to show a marked downtrend in popularity during the Fifties was the duplex which dropped from 13.4% of the total net unit gain for 1940-50 to 5.3% during 1950-60.

INCORPORATIONS SET A RECORD

Twenty-three new cities in less than six years is the incorporation record set in Los Angeles County since 1954. This emphatically surpasses the County's previous mark of 17 incorporations established during the first decade of this century. The most recent additions to these twenty-three are Commerce and Mirada Hills.

Commerce (SA 32.9) incorporated January 28, 1960, includes within its 6.311 square miles the community of Bandini, a section of northeastern Bell Gardens and a large element of the Central Manufacturing District.

Lying east of Valley View Avenue between Leffingwell Road and Alondra Boulevard, the County's sixty-eighth city Mirada Hills (SA 22.9) comprises 4.749 square miles of the La Mirada area. Although the community voted to incorporate on January 12, 1959, court proceedings delayed certification of the election so that incorporation did not occur until March 23, 1960.

ADJUSTMENTS

The creation of the two new cities required the adjustment of several major Statistical Area boundaries so as to simplify reporting. The principal displacement was the transfer of 1,022 dwelling units from SA 34.2 to SA 22.9. The decline in both SA 34.0 and SA 34.2 resulted from this shift and does not represent a loss in either population or dwelling units within those areas.

NET NATURAL INCREASE DECLINES

During 1959, net natural increase in Los Angeles County declined for the second consecutive year. Recently released data shows that the County had 132,271 births and 51,351 deaths or an excess of births over deaths of 80,920 for the year. This is a decline in net natural increase of 1,519 or 1.8% from the previous year and 5,028 or 5.8% from the record year of 1957.

Although net natural increase fell, family formation as indicated by marriage licenses issued continued to climb. Licenses issued in Los Angeles County rose from a postwar low of 29,459 in 1951 to 35,749 in 1956. Continuing to rise they totaled 37,705 in 1957, 38,292 in 1958 and 39,916 last year.

Current figures point to a prolongation of the trend, for in the first nine months of this year 31,452 licenses were issued as compared with 30,387 for the same period in 1959. It now appears probable that the total licenses for 1960 will exceed forty thousand and may approach the all-time peak of 42,046 recorded in 1946.

INCORPORATIONS

San Dimas (SA 25.5) became the County's seventieth city on August 4, 1960. Although Cudahy voted to incorporate on October 4, 1960, formal incorporation is still pending.

ADJUSTMENTS

County-wide preliminary census tract population counts were not available as this Bulletin was being prepared. However, preliminary 1960 Census figures for several scattered areas were received. Among the Statistical Areas adjusted to reflect this additional information were the following: SA 4.2, SA 6.1, SA 16.2, SA 18.7, SA 20.1, SA 23.1, SA 27.2 and SA 34.2.

There were three major dwelling unit changes in the Bulletin. These involved the following transfers: A. 1,293 from SA 12.2 to SA 18.41 to recognize an administrative shift in Statistical Area Boundaries; B. 4,102 units from SA 16.63 to SA 16.2 to reflect two large annexations to the Ciy of Inglewood; and C. 2,337 units from SA 25.41 to SA 25.5 to establish a Statistical Area for San Dimas.
